Fiscal Year 2018 Impact Report & Financials

In 2018 Disability Law Colorado enjoyed victories for individual clients, across systems and with-in public policy. We continue to stand our ground and fight every day for the rights of people with disabilities and elders throughout Colorado.

The Protection & Advocacy Teams include: Education, Access, Facilities, and Community Integration. In 2018 P&A staff recorded: 794 Information & Referrals (I&R's) and a total of 586 Case Services. We served clients aged 2 to 90 in 51 of Colorado's 64 counties. Thirty-nine percent of our cases were from rural areas, while 61 % were in urban settings. In addition to taking over 3,000 calls and conducting over 1,000 intakes, staff from all teams contributed to our work. www.disabilitylawco.org/P&A2018Report

In 2018 Disability Law Colorado celebrated three decades as the home of the Colorado State Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program and the Legal Assistance Developer Program. In 2018, legal assistance providers served 7,163 elders across the state requiring 12,071 hours of legal services. In addition, 3,076 hours of service were provided on a pro bono basis, which is a 73% increase over the previous year. Colorado has 232 nursing homes with a total of 21,489 beds and 664 assisted living residences with a total of 23,258 beds. In 2018 local ombudsmen made 8,879 visits to homes to monitor the quality of care, quality of life and to investigate and act upon concerns and complaints; investigated 3,787 complaints of which 2,868 were partially or fully resolved to the satisfaction of the resident; provided 6,583 consultations to staff or administrators of facilities and 10,434 consultations to residents, their family or friends or to the community at large on a wide range of long-term care issues and concerns; attended 1,506 resident council meetings and conducted 167 community education sessions; and conducted 112 training sessions. www.disabilitylawco.org/OlderAmericans2018Report

Together We're Stronger

What if giving from the heart helped change the lives of individuals with disabilities, older adults and their families in Colorado? Rest assured that your donation to Disability Law Colorado will impact lives throughout the Centennial state – up and down the Front Range, to rural communities on the Eastern Plains and across the Mountain Frontier and Western Slope.

Your gift will help fuel the fire of disability rights advocacy as we work to broker systems change, protect rights and improve lives. But we cannot accomplish this alone. Please partner with us and join your voice with ours by making a donation.
