

DISABILITY LAW COLORADO™

DON'T GET BITTEN BY THE LAW

Requirements for Service & Assistance Animals

Join Disability Law Colorado at one of our upcoming trainings to learn about the law regarding service & assistance animals

- Do you know the difference between a service animal and an assistance animal?
- Do you know which of these animals is allowed in a public business? In housing? In a school?
- Do you know when an animal – even an service animal – can be removed from a public business?
- Do you know what information can be requested of a person with a disability entering a public business with an animal? In housing?
- Do you know about Colorado's new law regarding intentional misrepresentation of a service or assistance animal and how it will apply when it is effective on January 1, 2017?

We currently have trainings scheduled in Denver, Colorado Springs, Vail, and Grand Junction. Additional locations and dates may be announced in the future. For additional information and to register, please go to bit.ly/2b6LTpn.

Please let us know 10 days in advance if you need accommodations. If you have any questions about these upcoming trainings, please contact Emily Harvey at eharvey@disabilitylawco.org or (303) 722-0300.
